

K-LOVE is the only radio station I listen to. I would be extremely upsetting if I never got to listen to it again. Plus, my family is a financial supporter of it. Putting it on LPFM would make it even harder to find. I can only hear it on my car radio as it is. I really wish I could get the signal on my home stereo system. K-LOVE is an uplifting radio station in the sea of mainstream radio stations; practically all owned by Clear Channel. Anyone can listen to K-LOVE and not be offended, not have to change channels when their children are listening. It's an all-around wonderful station. Please leave it alone, so we all may continue to enjoy it and be uplifted by all the songs and dj's.
